Luther Burbank's "Newest-Hybrid" Gladiolus

In Color Variations Never Before Achieved

The mixed bulbs we are able to offer represent the most remarkable assortment of hybrid Gladiolus produced in 35 years of plant breeding by Luther Burbank.

Absolutely new varieties of every form and color, including scarlet, crimson, yellow, blue, purple, lavender, orange, salmon and pink, with infinitely varied combinations of rainbow shades. Wonderful new combinations of colors and variations of shades never before seen in any flower except tropical orchids. These bulbs will give you an almost bewildering variety and abundance of bloom, in almost every conceivable shade and graduation of color—producing veritable poems of color.

From these bulbs will grow fine sturdy spikes bearing flowers 4 times as large as those shown in photo on other side of this sheet.

Our regular catalog price of these rare bulbs is 50 cents each—$4.00 per dozen and they are certainly worth it, being not only extra big, extra fine bulbs, but the finest Hybrid Gladiolus Burbank ever created. But—during April and May, as a special inducement for spring sales, we are going to give these fine, rare Burbank "Newest-Hybrid" Gladiolus FREE to customers.
